

Chumbawumba – The Day the Nazi Died – V1

[Intro]

[D] [G] [D] [A]

[D] [G] [A] [D]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

We're [D] taught that after the [G] war the nazis [D] vanished without a [A] trace but [D] battalions of [G] fascists still [A] dream of a master [D] race

The [D] history books they [G] tell of their [D] defeat in [A] '45

why did they [D] all come out of the [G] woodwork on the [A] day the nazi [D] died

They say the [D] prisoner of [G] Spandau was a [D] symbol of [A] defeat whilst [D] Hess remained [G] imprisoned then the [A] fascists they were [D] beat so the [D] promise of an [G] aryan world would [D] never material[A]ize [A][A][A] so why did they [D] all come out of the [G] woodwork on the [A] day the nazi [D] died

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

They're [D] here, and they're there, and they're [G] everywhere [D][A]

the [D] world is riddled with [G] maggots, the [D] maggots are getting [A] fat they're [D] making a tasty [G] meal of all the [A] bosses and burea[D]crats they're [D] taking over the [G] board rooms and they're [D] fat and full of [A] pride and they [D] all came out of the [G] woodwork on the [A] day the nazi [D] died

so if you [D] meet with these hist[G]orians, I'll [D] tell you what to [A] say [D] tell them that the [G] nazis never [A] really went [D] away they're [D] out there burning [G] houses down and [D]peddling racist [A] lies [A][A][A] (

(slower) and we'll [D] never rest [G] again until [A] every nazi [D] dies

[Outro]
