At the Bottom of Everything – Bright Eyes – V2

[C] [F] x 3

[C] we must talk in every telephone get [F] eaten off the [C] web
[C] we must rip out all the epilogues in the [F] books that we have [G] read
[C] and to the face of every criminal [F] strapped firmly to a chair
[F] we must [C] stare, we must , [G] stare we must [C] stare

[C] we must take all of the medicines too [F] expensive now to [C] sell
[C] set fire to the preacher who is [F] promising us [G] hell
[C] and in the ear of every anarchist who [F] sleeps but doesn't dream
[F] we must [C] sing, we must [G] sing, we must [C] sing

(it'll go like this alright) - BRIDGE

[F] While my mother [G] waters plants my [Am] father loads his [F] gun
[F] he says death will give us [G] back to god, just [Am] like the setting [F] sun
[G] is returned to the lonesome ocean

[C] [F] x 3

[C] we must blend into the choir sing a [F] ecstatic with the [C] whole
[C] we must memorize 9 numbers and [F] deny we have a [G] soul
[C] and in this endless race for property and [F] privilege to be won
[F] we must [C] run, we must [G] run, we must [C] run

[C] we must hang out in the belfry where the [F] bats and moonlight [C] laugh
[C] we must stare into a crystal ball and [F] only see the [G] past
[C] and into the caverns of tomorrow with just our [F] flashlight and our love
[F] we must [C] plunge, we must plunge, [G] we must plunge [C]

[F] oh my mornings [G] coming back the [Am] whole worlds waking [F] up
[F] all the city buses [G] swimming past I'm [Am] happy just be[F]cause
[G] I found out I'm really no one
